

Petra Pospíšilová

Petra Pospíšilová worked for 10 years as a tax advisor in a major Czech legal office providing council to various clients (production companies, service providers, trading companies, non-profit organizations) mainly in the field of the corporate tax and value added tax issues. Later on she specialized in the field of value added tax. In the period of 2005 – 2007 she worked as a director of the Indirect Taxes department of the Ministry of Finance of the Czech Republic, working on the legislation in the field of VAT, excise duties and energy taxation. Currently she works as the country tax manager for the ČSOB group, a major financial group, in the Czech Republic.

She is a Vice President of the Chamber of the Tax Advisors of the Czech Republic and a member of the International Fiscal Association. She acts as a head of the Tax Committee of the Czech Banking Association. She is the chairwoman of the subcommittee of the Indirect Tax of the CFE Fiscal Committee and chairs also the VAT Working Group of the European Banking Federation.