

ANDREW CLARKE, Secretary General and Executive Board Member

Andrew is a chartered accountant and chartered tax adviser of many years' experience, living and practising in Dublin, Ireland.

He was a partner in the Dublin firm of Crowe Horwath, accountants and tax advisers, until he retired from the practice in 2007. For the ten years up to that date he was managing partner of the firm. He was also a member of the Global Executive Committee of Crowe Horwath International and of the firm's International Tax Committee whilst a partner in the Dublin firm.

He continues to practise as a tax and financial adviser in Dublin for a small number of clients.

He has an MA in Economics and Politics from Cambridge University and is a past President of both the Irish Tax Institute and of the CFE – Tax Advisers Europe. He has served continuously on the various committees of the CFE since commencing as a delegate of the Irish Tax Institute in 1985.