

CURRICULUM VITAE

Saliou Dieye

Saliou Dieye is a Chartered Tax Expert and legal advisor. He is a Member of IECnet, an international association of accountants, auditors and tax consultants, of which the Cabinet Fiddex SDA, led by Saliou, is the main representative, since April 2017, in Senegal and West Africa. As such, Saliou was at the origin of the affiliation to this Network of several Cabinets of expertise established in Benin, Burkina Faso, Ivory Coast and Togo. He facilitated several training sessions in several African countries, particularly in Tunisia.

Author of various publications, Saliou published The Tax Vade Mecum 2019, providing students, practitioners and tax professionals with a guide to understand Senegalese taxation with the ambition of making it a model that should be replicated in all West African countries.

Honorary Secretary of the West African Union of Tax Institutes (WAUTI) since 2019, Saliou successfully organized the 6th edition of the annual international tax conference of UDFOFAO, in February 2020 in Dakar, which brought together nearly 200 experts, practitioners and professionals around the Theme: "Domestic Revenue Mobilization in ECOWAS Countries: Challenges and Prospects". He was particularly distinguished by the Senegalese Tax Administration through the Managing Director of Taxes and Domains, on the occasion of the 2020 Fiscal Year.

Saliou has initiated a vast program to allow tax experts in Senegal to be able to meet the new requirements of the Cabinets of Expertise faced with the challenges of digital transformation regarding the tax advisers' profession.
